FRIENDS OF ST JOHN'S CHURCH SAFARI SUPPER:

It's a whole month since Moggerhanger parishioners were seen travelling around the village in search of their supper. At a meeting of the Friends' Trustees this week, it was announced that the event raised the magnificent sum of £815. It started with welcome drinks in the garden of Tim and Carolyn Lister. Diners were then sent to various houses in the village for their starter and an hour later they were on the move again to meet a different host and different guests for the main course. Dessert and coffee with liqueurs were served back at the church and the atmosphere was buzzing. A huge vote of thanks to everyone who helped - the organisers, the hosts and cooks, the servers and the washer-uppers. All proceeds are going to help to maintain the lovely church building and the churchyard.
